CATALOGUE
OF
A COLLECTION
OF
Paintings, Water-Colors,
BLACK-AND-WHITE DRAWINGS,

CONTRIBUTED BY
BOSTON ARTISTS,
FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE FAMILY OF THE LATE
GEO. CURTIS.

On Exhibition in Williams & Everett's Gallery.

Sale by Auction,
Tuesday, April 25, 1882

SULLIVAN BROS. & LIBBIE,
SAMUEL HATCH & CO.,
AUCTIONEERS.

THE Collection of Paintings, Water Colors and Drawings now on view have been contributed by Boston Artists for the benefit of the family of the late George Curtis.

For many years this artist was a resident of Chelsea, and was known in this community as a painter of Marine Subjects.

His pictures of Open Sea, of Coast and Beach, with their summer skies, are always agreeable in color and composition, and suggest the refined and tender love of nature which belongs to the genuine artist. Of a reserved nature, and obliged often by the exigencies of life to devote his time to less congenial pursuits, Mr. Curtis in later years did not often exhibit his works, and on this account is not so widely known as his talents deserved. The present exhibition includes a few of his works, and special attention is called to Nos. 11, 12, 14, 39 and 67.

The Collection has been freely given by the artists represented. The use of the gallery and the services of the auctioneer are also contributed; and it only remains for the public to respond generously, and secure for the Exhibition that success the contributors desire.

The Pictures will be sold by auction on Tuesday next, in WILLIAMS & EVERETT'S Gallery, at 2.30 P. M.

The Pictures will be sold without the Frames, the prices of which, printed in the Catalogue, will be added to the amount of the bids.
